

SUICIDE FOR LOVE.

Susanna Bartosh's Sweetheart in Hungary Proved False.

Early This Morning She Shot Herself Through the Heart.

Her Sister's Child Sat Crying Beside the Body.

Susanna Bartosh, a comely young Hungarian, committed suicide early today by shooting herself in her bedroom at 174 Park avenue, where she lived with her married sister.

The deed was prompted by news from the old country that her lover, who had promised to marry her, had fallen in love with another girl, whom he was going to make his wife.

Susanna's hand was sought by numerous young men in the village, but she fell in love with Paul Kotler, a young tailor who made the uniforms for the artillery.

Kotler, before he came enamored of Susanna, was in love with her younger sister Julia, and the latter was married to some one else and has since died.

Kotler and the fair Susanna kept company for several years and were betrothed. He promised to marry her when he had served his time in the military.

Susanna was happy, but as the time approached when her lover was to leave the army, and it became known that he was to be married to another girl, she was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

Susanna had already gone so far as to purchase her wedding dress. Her lovers held clandestine meetings at Kotler's family made known their opposition to the match and decided on what course they would pursue.

Susanna's brother John was coming to the country to visit another sister, who is the wife of Hugo Bukmann, who keeps a grocery store at 174 Park avenue.

Mrs. Bukmann had two children by her first husband, and her brother was going to bring her to the country. She arranged that Susanna would come to the country and be married to her brother.

As soon as he finished his military service he would follow her and make her his wife.

Unfortunately Susanna came over with her brother and her sister's children. Her lover saw her and was so distressed that he decided to end his life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

She was so distressed that she decided to end her life. She was so distressed that she decided to end her life.

JAILED THE COMPLAINT. A SHELBYVILLE BANK FAILS.

Mr. Booth Ordered a Policeman to Close a Saloon.

He Was Arrested, and Justice Koch Held Him to Keep the Peace.

Stenographer Orrin B. Booth, whose office is in the Metropolitan Building, Twenty-third street and Madison avenue, is today figuring out his chances of getting damages should he decide to bring suit for false imprisonment against Saloonkeeper P. J. Kelly, of Bleecker street and South Fifth avenue.

Incidentally, Mr. Booth has a busy idea that Jefferson Market Court Justice is not what it is cracked up to be when Justice Koch is on the bench.

Mr. Booth is now under $300 bonds for his good behavior, because he ventured to play the part of a good citizen and close up a saloon, which he alleges was running in full blast on Sunday night.

Besides having to find a bondsman and undergoing the indignities of a court trial, Mr. Booth is for counsel fees and other expenses incidental to his arrest.

The story of his troubles, as told by himself, is as follows:

On Sunday evening Mr. Booth was passing the corner of Bleecker street and South Fifth avenue. He noticed that the saloon, which is on the corner, was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

Mr. Booth, who is a disciple of Dr. McKim, had an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, asked Policeman Moran to close the saloon, which he was doing a rushing business through the medium of three side doors on Bleecker street.

NEW PERSPECTIVES.

IS STRIKE INVITED? HYSTERIA, NOT HYDROPHOBIA.

Trenton Potters Ordered to Doubly Replace Spoiled Ware.

The Men Claim This is a Pretext to Have the Works Closed.

TRENTON, N. J., July 11.—Trouble is threatened between the sanitary pressers and the employing potters engaged in that part of the trade.

Yesterday the operatives employed in the Equitable, Empire, Enterprise, Keystone, Egyptian, Dixie & Davis and Madison establishments received written notice that hereafter each piece of ware spoiled in the preliminary firing in the biscuit kiln, must be replaced by two pieces.

Heretofore the pressers have been required to simply replace the spoiled piece. The reason given by the employers for the new order is that the men are getting careless, and that they are making a pretext for a strike in order to stop work and find sale for their goods on hand.

The workmen assert that the reason for the new order is that the men are getting careless, and that they are making a pretext for a strike in order to stop work and find sale for their goods on hand.

Two years ago there was a strike which lasted five months, and the manufacturers have since admitted that they made a pretext for a strike in order to stop work and find sale for their goods on hand.

Three other establishments, the Crescent, the Delaware and Will's potters, are involved, and will give notice to their men to-day. This evening the sanitary pressers are to hold a meeting to discuss the matter.

They are said to be about evenly divided on the question of striking, but all agree that much of the bad ware caused by poor quality of clay used and by firing for which they are not responsible.

Three other establishments, the Crescent, the Delaware and Will's potters, are involved, and will give notice to their men to-day. This evening the sanitary pressers are to hold a meeting to discuss the matter.

They are said to be about evenly divided on the question of striking, but all agree that much of the bad ware caused by poor quality of clay used and by firing for which they are not responsible.

Three other establishments, the Crescent, the Delaware and Will's potters, are involved, and will give notice to their men to-day. This evening the sanitary pressers are to hold a meeting to discuss the matter.

They are said to be about evenly divided on the question of striking, but all agree that much of the bad ware caused by poor quality of clay used and by firing for which they are not responsible.

Three other establishments, the Crescent, the Delaware and Will's potters, are involved, and will give notice to their men to-day. This evening the sanitary pressers are to hold a meeting to discuss the matter.

They are said to be about evenly divided on the question of striking, but all agree that much of the bad ware caused by poor quality of clay used and by firing for which they are not responsible.

Three other establishments, the Crescent, the Delaware and Will's potters, are involved, and will give notice to their men to-day. This evening the sanitary pressers are to hold a meeting to discuss the matter.

They are said to be about evenly divided on the question of striking, but all agree that much of the bad ware caused by poor quality of clay used and by firing for which they are not responsible.

Three other establishments, the Crescent, the Delaware and Will's potters, are involved, and will give notice to their men to-day. This evening the sanitary pressers are to hold a meeting to discuss the matter.

They are said to be about evenly divided on the question of striking, but all agree that much of the bad ware caused by poor quality of clay used and by firing for which they are not responsible.

Three other establishments, the Crescent, the Delaware and Will's potters, are involved, and will give notice to their men to-day. This evening the sanitary pressers are to hold a meeting to discuss the matter.

They are said to be about evenly divided on the question of striking, but all agree that much of the bad ware caused by poor quality of clay used and by firing for which they are not responsible.

Three other establishments, the Crescent, the Delaware and Will's potters, are involved, and will give notice to their men to-day. This evening the sanitary pressers are to hold a meeting to discuss the matter.

They are said to be about evenly divided on the question of striking, but all agree that much of the bad ware caused by poor quality of clay used and by firing for which they are not responsible.

Three other establishments, the Crescent, the Delaware and Will's potters, are involved, and will give notice to their men to-day. This evening the sanitary pressers are to hold a meeting to discuss the matter.

They are said to be about evenly divided on the question of striking, but all agree that much of the bad ware caused by poor quality of clay used and by firing for which they are not responsible.

Three other establishments, the Crescent, the Delaware and Will's potters, are involved, and will give notice to their men to-day. This evening the sanitary pressers are to hold a meeting to discuss the matter.

They are said to be about evenly divided on the question of striking, but all agree that much of the bad ware caused by poor quality of clay used and by firing for which they are not responsible.

Midsummer Reductions.

SUITS. We have gone over our entire stock of Summer Suits, dividing them into three classes, which represent the maximum of value for the minimum of cost.

LOT 1.—Our highest priced suits, of the finest material, made up in the latest styles, selling formerly at $30, $27.50, $25 and $22, now marked

LOT 2.—Our $20 and $18 Suits reduced to.....

LOT 3.—Our $16.50 and $15 Suits reduced to....

Whichever class best suits your pocket, you will find big bargains in it. Everything guaranteed.

Prices go into effect WEDNESDAY, JULY 12.

Byck Brothers

S. W. Corner Fulton and Nassau Sts., AT 160, 162 and 164 EAST 125TH ST. BOTH STORES.

LOCKED UP HIS OWN WIFE.

Mrs. Policeman Perkins Assaulted Her Husband on Post.

Dentist Beating Her and Claims She Stabbed Him.

The wife of Policeman Walter L. Perkins, of Capt. Price's West Thirty-third street station, was held in Jefferson Market Court to-day in default of $50 bail for examination Wednesday on the charge of intoxication and disorderly conduct on her husband's post last night.

Perkins told Capt. Price several days ago that his wife had stabbed him in the leg with a knife, and asked his advice. The captain told him to get a warrant and Perkins did so, but did not serve it.

Perkins was formerly a policeman in the "Tenderloin" district, but over a year ago was transferred to Capt. Price's command. He has been married for several years, but has lived unhappily for a long time. Mrs. Perkins' relations claim that the policeman is responsible for the estrangement.

They claim that he abuses and ill-treats his wife, and in court this morning she told Justices Grady that her body was covered with black and blue marks, the result of her husband's blows.

Perkins denied this. He said that he was on post at Thirty-fourth street and Ninth avenue last night at 12:30, when his wife came along and started to continue a quarrel which they had during the afternoon at their home, 45 West Thirty-eighth street.

He ordered her to go away and leave him alone, but instead of complying, she said, she began to beat him with an umbrella.

He then gave her thirty minutes to get off of his post, and as she did not leave, he arrested her.

She was locked up in West Thirtieth street, as there is no matron at the Thirtieth street station.

When they were taken to court this morning, both began to talk at once. Perkins exhibited his helmet, with a long slit in the side, which he claimed had been inflicted by a knife in the hands of his wife.

Justice Perkins then began to beg Justice to let her go, and she would not leave until her husband was released. Mrs. Perkins is rather a good-looking woman, but quite stout, and was dressed in a neat brown dress and a broad band.

After she was held she burst into tears, but they had no effect upon her husband, who led her to the jail and locked her up without a word.

BRUTAL WIFE BEATER HELD.

Barnes Was About to Kill Her When Neighbors Interfered.

John Barnes, of Belmont avenue, near Stone avenue, was held to await the action of the Grand Jury by Justice Connelly, at the Gates Avenue Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning.

A week ago Barnes came home under the influence of liquor and threw a pan of beans at his wife. He then knocked her down, broke two of her ribs and dislocated the elbow of her right arm.

Mrs. Barnes became unconscious, and when she awoke Barnes picked up a carving knife, and was about to use it upon her when some occupants of the house took the weapon away from him. The injured woman was taken to a hospital, where she remained until to-day, when she was able to attend against the prisoner.

The only excuse Barnes gave to Justice for his conduct was that he was drunk at the time, and did not know what he was doing.

W. C. T. U. Work Reviewed.

CHICAGO, July 11.—The meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at the Tabernacle yesterday forenoon was devoted to a review of the history of the Union.

The review was an animated discussion of the question, "Why Does the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Exist?" the meeting closed with a discussion of the finances of the organization.

"Kid" O'Brien Getting Better.

"Kid" O'Brien, who was shot by his fellow crook, "Little Sam," in Chatham square Friday night, is slowly improving at Government Hospital. The symptoms of peritonitis are now very slight.

GIBBS FAILED TO GET A WRIT.

Excise Commissioners Had Re-Used Him a Saloon License.

Justice Clinton of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this morning denied the application of David E. Gibbs for a writ certiorari to compel the Excise Commissioners of Brooklyn to review their refusal to grant him a license for a saloon at Myrtle avenue and Washington Park, which is a select neighborhood.

Excise Commissioner's son-in-law, Dr. A. F. Carroll lives on Washington Park, and it is said that he had a saloon in the vicinity of the saloon which Gibbs wanted.

Excise Commissioner's son-in-law, Dr. A. F. Carroll lives on Washington Park, and it is said that he had a saloon in the vicinity of the saloon which Gibbs wanted.

Excise Commissioner's son-in-law, Dr. A. F. Carroll lives on Washington Park, and it is said that he had a saloon in the vicinity of the saloon which Gibbs wanted.

Excise Commissioner's son-in-law, Dr. A. F. Carroll lives on Washington Park, and it is said that he had a saloon in the vicinity of the saloon which Gibbs wanted.

Excise Commissioner's son-in-law, Dr. A. F. Carroll lives on Washington Park, and it is said that he had a saloon in the vicinity of the saloon which Gibbs wanted.

Excise Commissioner's son-in-law, Dr. A. F. Carroll lives on Washington Park, and it is said that he had a saloon in the vicinity of the saloon which Gibbs wanted.

Excise Commissioner's son-in-law, Dr. A. F. Carroll lives on Washington Park, and it is said that he had a saloon in the vicinity of the saloon which Gibbs wanted.

"CAMMEYER"

Stamped on a Shoe Means Standard of Merit.

Removal Sale

CLOSING OUT

Entire Lines of

LADIES' OXFORD TIES,

in Tan and Brown Goat,

AT $1.50 PER PAIR.

In Red and Brown

RUSSIA CALF,

AT $2.00 PER PAIR.

Good Value at $3.00

LADIES' RUSSET GOAT

BUTTON SHOES.

ALL SIZES AND WIDTHS,

AT $2.00 PER PAIR.

Reduced from $3.00.

TENNIS SHOES,

in Canvas, Goat, Russia Calf and Patent Leather,

FROM 85c TO $3 PER PAIR.

A.J. CAMMEYER

Sixth Avenue, cor. 12th st.

REAL ESTATE.

JERE. JOHNSON, JR.

Sells Beautiful Homes, Jr.

on Monthly Payments

A PRACTICAL ANTI-POVERTY SCHEME.

INVEST YOUR SAVINGS IN HOME SITE

Demorest,

ON THE HILLSTOPS.

SITUATED IN NEW JERSEY ON THE PENNSYLVANIA RR. AND JUST BEYOND THE BEAUTIFUL AND FLOURISHING CITY OF RAILWAY.

PLOTS 25x150 FT. EACH.

FROM $40 A PIECE UP,

PAYABLE IN SMALL MONTHLY INSTALLMENTS.

TITLES INSURED.

FREE PASSES FOR ANY DAY.

JERE. JOHNSON, JR., 60 Liberty st., N. Y., and 109 and 121 Montague st., Brook 72.

Choice Lots, $250 EACH.

LADIES FIND THIS A DESIRABLE INVESTMENT.

Call week days and Sundays.

JOHN CHRYSLER, Attorney.

INSTRUCTION.

DIVIDED BUS-BOARDS.

Imp. by Mrs. Bettenger (Pa.) Feb. 21.